

Mike Anderson CRMS

President Essential Mortgage

Mike Anderson, CRMS is a 30 year veteran of the mortgage industry and the current president of Essential Mortgage, a Latter & Blum company. Mike is also the current legislative chair and past president of the Louisiana Mortgage Lenders Association. He serves on the Residential lending Advisory board for the Office of Financial Institutions for the State of Louisiana, and is an approved instructor for continuing education.

Mike also sits on the Housing and community development advisory task force for the State since 2007, National Association of Mortgage Brokers (NAMB) PAC Chair 2009/2010, Vice Chair NAMB Government Affairs 2009/2010, member of RESPRO & The Realty Alliance. He is very active in national mortgage affairs in Washington DC and has testified before the Federal Reserve board and is very active in federal legislation as it pertains to the mortgage industry. He is a regular and frequent guest on WWL and has been quoted in many local and national publications.